Analysis summary

Mars, the ruler of the 1st house, is heavily afflicted and requires immediate strengthening.

The Sun is the main cause of the problems mentioned and also requires immediate strengthening.

The precarious position of the Sun and Jupiter demand caution in regards to diet and self-control.

The 7th house shows extreme difficulties in marital relations, and it is advised to seek alternative relationship arrangements.

Recommendations

Mars: To strengthen Mars, it would be prudent to lower the workload and to begin participating in group sports at least once a week. In addition, it is highly advised to start wearing an astrological talisman containing one or more gemstones of the following type and size: High quality Carnelian, with a total weight of at least 2 and no more than 7 carats. Such a talisman is likely to assist with the issue of chronic pain.

Sun: To strengthen the Sun, it is highly recommended to work on the issues of self-respect and self-worth with a professional counselor. In addition, it is highly advised to start wearing an astrological talisman containing one or more gemstones of the following type and size: High quality Pyrope Garnet, with a total weight of at least 3 and no more than 7 carats. Such a talisman is likely to assist with the problems in the digestive system as well as with the addictions.

Jupiter: To strengthen Jupiter, it would be prudent to find a spiritual teacher or guide with whom you see eye to eye, and who could provide moral support in times of need. While it is unnecessary, it is also possible to use an astrological talisman containing one or more gemstones of the following type and size: High quality natural Citrine, with a total weight of at least 3 carats. Such a talisman can assist with matters regarding children (and their number), as well as with family life in general.

Recommended Astrological Talisman: The most appropriate Astrological Talisman for you according to your birth chart is one containing a combination of Carnelian and Pyrope Garnet gemstones of the size prescribed above. This talisman can also include Citrine gemstones but as mentioned before this is not necessary and is a matter of personal preference. The recommended metal is silver, however white gold would also be suitable. The talisman must be made in such a way that the underside of the gems is exposed to the skin, otherwise the metal will block their effect.

Detailed Astrological Analysis

Mars and Mercury – Rulers of the 1st and 8th in the 6th:

Mars, which controls the 1st house of life, body and health, is located in your chart in the 6th house of responsibilities, accidents, diseases and hidden enemies together with mercury which rules the 8th house of transformation and upheaval, chronic illness, disasters and loss.

This combination shows that you focus too much on problems, responsibilities and work in your everyday life, and this significantly weakens you physically. In addition, this combination suggest a neurological problem in the muscular system, and a checkup by a professional neurologist is recommended. The 5th Rahu aspect on this combination points to a high susceptibility to intestinal pathogens and parasites, hence a healthy diet and regular checkups are in order.

Aside from the above, the 10th Saturn aspect on this combination indicates difficulties in treatment with extra effort required for healing. Moreover, Mercury's rulership of the 11th house indicates an extremely hostile social circle and serious danger of violent attacks, while Ketu in the 8th house symbolizes ganger from extremist elements, hence extreme caution is advised whenever in public.

Warning! – During the planetary periods of Jupiter, the ruler of the 2nd in the 7th, a serious threat to your life is indicated, especially in the sub-periods of Mercury, Venus, Saturn and Ketu. Extreme caution is advised during these periods.

Jupiter – Ruler of the 2nd and 5th in the 7th:

As the ruler of the 2nd which symbolizes the mouth and the 5th which symbolizes the stomach, Jupiter has a vital role when it comes to the digestive system. His placement between Mars and the Sun indicates hyperacidity, hence it is recommended to include more cold foods and foods with a high mineral content such as dairy products in the daily diet.

The virtual conjunction (different signs) of Jupiter with Mercury, the ruler of the 8th, and Mars, the ruler of the 6th, emphasizes even more the fragile situation with the stomach and even hints at the development of an ulcer, hence it is best to avoid spicy foods and alcohol. Moreover, Jupiter's position in the hostile sign of Taurus together with the Sun and Venus Hints at the tendency to overindulge in general and with food and drinks in particular, and it is highly recommended to avoid excess sugar consumption due to the possibility of diabetes and to avoid tobacco due to the possibility of cancer.

The position of the 2nd lord in the 6th from itself together with the Sun also indicates a strained relationship with the family in general and with the father in particular, and it would be prudent to be more calm, composed and humble in your interactions with them to smooth out the tension.

The Sun – The Root Cause:

The position of the Sun in the 7th house, its house of debilitation, and in an enemy sign together with its ruler Venus, which also controls the 12 house of waste, addiction and isolation, indicate some serious issues in regards to the things the Sun represents such as the father and other authority figures, self-confidence and self-control, the stomach, the back and the heart. On the most basic level those issues manifest as low self-confidence and self-esteem which stem from both the strained relationship with the cold and controlling father, as indicated by the position of Saturn, and from the derogatory treatment you received from others in childhood. The problem was made worse by the placement of Rahu in the second which indicates that your family were viewed as outsiders, and by a difference in your speech or accent which made you stand out from your peers.

Also as was mentioned before, this position of the Sun together with Jupiter indicates hyperacidity, and the simultaneous position of both the sun (back) and Saturn (bones) in enemy signs together with the conjunction between Mars and mercury indicate serious issues with the back, the spine and the condition of the body in general.

Despite all of these, the combination of the rulers of the 5th, 7th and 10th houses in the 7th house is a 1st degree royal combination (raja yoga), and together with the position of the moon in the 10th this indicates immense success as a public figure. In addition, the fact that the 10th house falls in Leo and contains the Moon which symbolizes the attention of the masses, it is highly advised to pursue a public career in the areas of politics of cinema instead of business, military or academic fields.

Venus – The ruler of the 7th and the 12th in the 7th:

Despite its position in its own house and sign being extremely robust when it comes to the natural symbolism of Venus such as enjoyment, money, luxury, popularity and women, its position in the 7th house together with Jupiter and the Sun is very problematic when it comes to marriage and marital life. This problem is made even worse when it comes to the position of Ketu in the 8th house which symbolizes sexual relations, as this placement simultaneously translates as both apathy and loss of control in regards to sex and fidelity.

The placement of three planets in the 7th house of relationships is actually a good reason to seek an alternative to the traditional marital contract as both it and the position of Mars and Mercury in the 6th are almost certain indicators of divorce. Quite ironically, all of the above are also great indicators for many short and enjoyable love affairs.
